Monitoring Machinery for Land Reforms

2068. SHRI RAM DAS AGARWAL: Will the Minister of RURAL AREAS AND EMPLOYMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have formulated a comprehensive plan to motivate different State Governments for effective implementation of land reforms, and to set-up monitoring machinery to ensure that every State Government is seriously implementing the same;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL AREAS AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI CHANDRADEO PRASAD VERMA): (a) to (c) As per list-II of the VIIth Schedule of the constituion of India, Land Administration including land reforms comes under exclusive legislative and administrative jurisdiction of the State Govts. and, hence, the role of the Union Government in this matter is mainly advisory and coordinative. However, to motivate different State Govts. for effective implementation of land reforms and to regularly monitor the progress, the Government of India have been taking up the following steps:—

(i) Organising Conferences of Revenue Ministers of States/UTs to motivate different State/UT Governments for effective land reforms in the country.

(ii) The Ministry of Rural Areas & Employment collects quarterly progress report on distribution of ceiling surplus land.

(iii) The Department of Programme Implementation publishes monthly progress report on distribution of ceiling surplus land under item No. 5A of the Twenty Point Programme of the Government.
